

We Are The Critical Mass

Citizens of the world... the time has come.
Citizens of the world... all you daughters and sons.
Citizens of the world... choose your path.
Citizens of the world... we are the critical mass.

We have arrived at the shore of our tomorrow.
We are making a wave to create a world of peace.
Now is the time to reach out to your brothers.
Now is the time to erase the face of fear.
'Cause we're all in this game if the rules never change they divide us.
If we want to last we must break from the past. Love will guide us.
We are traveling light filled with the sight understanding the critical mass is expanding.

Citizens of the world... peace is your right.
Citizens of the world... end all the fights.
Citizens of the world... raise your voice.
Citizens of the world... we have a choice
No hate today... only love.
No fear today... only joy, joy, joy.
No war today...only peace, only peace.
Citizens of the world... we are the critical mass.

Setting Sail

I'm setting sail winging down the wind,
Every destination is charted deep within
I'm setting sail I never look behind
Cause every day's a new horizon
I never worry when winds are blowing
Or when I lose sight of my port of call.
I drink the wind and I taste the ocean
And know my heart's a compass calling me home
When I am lost in a sea of trouble,
When I am tossed by mighty gales,
When I'm in irons or winds becalm me
I know the breath of God will fill my sails
And I'm sailing straight into sunrise
Living one breath from the stars
Freedom; welcome to heaven.
Heaven is right where you are.
I'm setting sail winging down the wind,

Every destination is charted deep within
I'm setting sail I never look behind
Cause every day's a new horizon.
I may never arrive but I'll know I'm alive
Cause every day's a new horizon.

Desire Never Dies

We wandered everywhere, through the fountains in the market square, through the vendors, and the vineyards, and the mountains in the summer air.
Eyes full of secrets, little lockets of ocean blue,
whispered wishes for kisses and love made under heaven's hues.

You made my heart pound like the ocean that foamed below that same path of gods walked by lovers of old.
And all of our senses cried with wonder at the touch of wind leaving leaves in our hair and salt on our skin.
And you will feel the wind cease to blow and you will see the ocean bide long before my heart will let you go now that you're inside.

Do you remember how we promised under starlit skies
to keep our love alive on the wind and on the tide?
We'd meet as strangers in another place another time
and see through our disguise into each other's eyes.
Because deep in your heart you know desire never dies.

We've been together soul to soul before time before time before time before.
So walk with me in the sun today and know that you will feel the wind cease to blow and you will see the ocean bide long before my heart will let you go now that you're inside.

How could you ever think I would leave you after all this time of twisting in the wind like the Cyprus on the hill?
You've been a wanderer for all your lives, yet I know love will bring you home.
Because deep in your heart you know desire never dies...

Changing Winds

One day I stood alone weeping in the mirror, wondering how I ever got myself down here.
I know my choices cannot be undone, but I feel the winds are changing.
What's done is done.
Then a sunset brought me to my knees.
And in the twilight flew angels on the breeze.

In my heart I knew I had a second chance to hear the music in my soul and learn to dance.
I yearn to dance on those...

Changing winds. The winds are changing.
Life goes on and the winds will blow.

What are the choices I make on my way to keep me centered in my heart each day?
The Lord forgives my every mistake.
I want to give myself the same break.
Sweet forgiveness on gentle white light blowing on this changing wind through my life.
Blow through my life.
The universe says, "Be what you will. You are a miracle here to fulfill.
Open your heart and let wonder fill your soul.
Feel the power growing strong and taking hold."
Watch me unfold on those...
Changing winds. The winds are changing.
Life goes on and the winds will blow.

Romeo

You read a comic book. I quote Shakespeare
I order food in French and you drink your beer.
You drive a rattle-trap. I drive an SL
We come from different worlds. What the hell?

You're my Romeo, my Romeo. You're the one I can't let go
And I want everyone to know you're my Romeo.
Romeo, my Romeo. Hold me close when the lights are low.
Music plays and we're dancing slow.

I've got a condo on Maui. Your trailer leaks.
You set the world on fire while I critique
You own a lava lamp. I stroll Guggenheim
You sing for your supper, while I fine dine.

Yet you lift my spirits when I'm feeling like a fool.

You tell me I don't have to live by their rules
You give me hope when it seems the world doesn't care
Now all I want to do is wake and find you there.
You're my Romeo...
Everybody tells me, that you're no good
I don't believe them though they say I should
Your heart is good and I know it. Your love is true and you show it
Your name is Joe, but you know you're my Romeo
You're my Romeo...
